have to depend on my outside circulation & support to sustain the paper. I am editor, clerk, proof reader, mail clerk and general knock about.
If I could sell out I would do so at once - we only live in hopes of "something to turn up," and besides, I have a heavy load to carry to help others along.
I hope the day will soon come when our road will reach Austin. Our bar and bay has been well reported to the Government by Hewes as the best on the coast.
