He emigrated to Texas in the fall of A.D. 1833 and first settled in Grimes county, and the records of the General Land Office will show that he received his Head-right and Bounty warrant, and said records will also show that he served faithfully and honorably in the military service of the Republic of Texas between the dates of January 1832, and Octo 15th A.D. 1836, and that he was regularly and honorably discharged. for more particular information see Commissioner's certificate which is made a part of this application.

Applicant further avers that the Public Documents at Austin will show that he was for nineteen sessions a member of the Congress and Legislature of Texas.

Said applicant is a cripple and on that account, as well as his extreme age is unable to perform any labor, and is now in a needy and destitute condition without means for support. All of the above statement is true and correct