San Felipe de Austin Jany. 16. 1836

Sir,

Circumstances imperiously make it absolutely necessary that you repair immediately to this place and take your seat as member of the General Council, and it is sincerely hoped and expected that you will lay aside all Excuses and Come, if you love your country come, if your wish well to your family or friends or yourself Come speedily. for your services here cannot be dispensed with on any account. If you would save Texas from anarchy & confusion at home and from open Enemies from abroad, I pray you in God's name come until the Convention meets, or induce Some member from your municipality to Come. I am ordered by the Gen. Council to make this call.

Your respectfully
James W. Robinson
Acting Governor

Geo. M. Patrick Esq