That he served a term of six months further in the Company of Capt Jerome B. Robertson (now Genl) under Col Joe H. D. Rodgers. That he he received two land warrants of 640 acres each for such service, and he has not received any pension under the acts of the Texas Legislature for granting pensions to the surviving veterans of the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico. That of the two land warrants mentioned above he sold one to a Mr Walker in A.D. 1837. And that he located the other in Harrison County Texas while living there with his family in 1847–8. That he has a wife living and four children. That he does not know where any of his old comrads now live except Genl Jerome B Robertson who was his Captain during the second term of his service as a volunteer.

John C. Post

Subscribed in my presence and affirmed to before me this 10th day of June A.D. 1874

Wm C. Little Probate Judge