and continued [illegible] the [illegible] he was discharged about the [illegible]th day of July A.D. 1836. Said Company after its organization at the date aforesaid immediately entered upon active duty, and the town of Nacogdoches being threatened by attack, as was rumored and believed, by Indians and Mexicans, Said Company remained at Nacogdoches in the defense of said town against the expected attack until the 10th of April AD 1836 when said Company marched thence to join the main army under Gen. Sam. Houston, and proceeding as far as the Trinity River were detained a while by high water & the want of guides, and succeeded in joining the said Army about the 23rd day of April A.D.
1836 - Said Company was then and there attached to the regiment under the Command of Col Sherman, and thenceforth continued in active service under said Command, said applicant continuing to serve therein, until he was duly discharged as aforesaid on or about the 15th day of July A.D. 1836 -