said Company, with several other Companies then here, under the Command of Certain Officers, - (affiant thinks Martin Parmer a part of the time, and Col Jesse Benton another part) were detained here in active Service in the defense of Nacogdoches - Hostile demonstrations on the part of Mexicans in this County, armed, officered, organized and under arms were being made - and it was believed then and still is believed that they were advised of and expected said aid from said division of Santa Anna and Indians, which failed to reach here on account of the inclemant and heavy rains - Whilst said Company was thus in service said Randall was actually disarmed by a hostile party of said Mexicans - Affiant further States that said Company under Capt Smith left here (Nacogdoches) for the main army under Gen Houston about the early part of April AD, 1836 said Randall being a member, and going with it - Affiant States that said Randall has been ever since & still is a citizen of Nacogdoches County Texas, and is aged about fifty four or fifty five years judging from his appearance - Affiant believes said Randall to be justly entitled to a pension for