The State of Texas }
County of Ellis } On this day came before the undersigned authority A A Kemble to me well known, who being duly sworn states that some two or three years since, at the instance of William Rice he drew up an affidavit, which was signed and sworn to by A A Foster, who is now dead: in which said Foster states that he knew said Rice and knew that he was wounded at the battle of San Jacinto: Cannot state certain but affiants recollection is that the affidavit showed that Rice was on detail with Deaf Smith gathering or driving beeves, and was wounded near the battle ground and about the time of the battle: Said affidavit was sworn to before N. S. Davis, then an acting justice of the peace of this County

A A Kemble

Sworn to and subscribed before me.
