Hon. John D. McCall,
Austin, Texas,

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 13th received, relative to the pension of Sam H. Ross, recently applied for. We think the suggestions of your letter as to the rigid proof required are hardly borne out by the existing law and beg to submit our views as follows: The act of April 21, 1874, which you cite, was repealed entirely by an act of March 13th 1875. There was some legislation on the subject in 1876 and 1879. On March 28, 1883 an original act was passed covering the entire subject. On March 31st, 1885 another original act (which of course repealed the act of 1883) was passed covering the entire subject. See
