98. John Saunders
vs
The State of Texas

C.D. 172 Nov. 23. 1878.

This day came on to be heard the application of John Saunders for pension, and it appearing to the Court that said application is in all things sufficient & it further appearing to the Court from the evidence adduced that the said John Saunders was a Soldier in the Texas Revolution and served as such between the commencement of the Revolution at Gonzales in 1835 and the first day of January AD 1837 and that the said applicant is in indigent circumstances & wholly unable to support himself. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said John Saunders is entitled to draw his pension from the State of Texas as provided for by an act of the Legislature of the State of Texas approved July 28th, 1876, and it is ordered by the Court that certificate issues
