The State of Texas
County of Gonzales }

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority, at the date below written, Theodore S. Lee a resident citizen of said county & State, who [redacted] to me well known, and who after having been by me duly sworn on his solemn oath says that he was personally acquainted with Jonathan Scott dec'd, late of Gonzales county, said State, and late husband of Mrs. Dianah Scott of said county and State. And affiant says that he well knows from personal knowledge as well as general reputation that the said Jonathan Scott was a soldier in the war of Texas against Mexico in the year 1836, and served faithfully as such until he was honorably discharged, and that the said Dianah Scott as his surviving widow is entitled to a Pension under the Laws of the said State of Texas for the said Military services of her said husband.
