The Rev. Richard A. Finley

said Session was detached from said company and from the main body of the army by order from Gen. Edward Burleson delivered in person to said Session - upon special and detached service, and that affiant so distinctly understood at the time.

Affiant further states that he, himself, affiant, has drawn a pension and Bounty warrants for money and land under and by the laws of the Republic of Texas, in consideration of his services as a soldier rendered as aforesaid to the republic of Texas. And that he, affiant, knows that said Session is fully entitled to the same for the services aforesaid from the State of Texas
