Colonel Morgan part of the time and under C. J. Graham the balance of the time he was in the Texas army. That he joined the army of Texas about the 18th day of May in the year One thousand eight hundred and thirty six. J. R. Smith

And also came James Smith and says that he left Dyersburg Tennessee in company with said John Robert Smith who executed the foregoing power of Attorney about the day of April A.D. 1836 for the purpose of enlisting in the army of Texas then engaged in the war of the revolution which seperated Texas from Mexico that he and said John Robert Smith joined Captain Switzers Company together and was under colonel Morgan part of the time and under colonel Graham the balance of the time they were in the Texas army. That they joined the [illegible] of Texas together about the 18 day of May in the year A.D. 1836. and served together until discharged

[illegible] James Smith

Also came Judge Isaac Sampson & T. H. Johnson who say they remember when said John Robert Smith who executed