State of Kentucky } B
Jefferson County }

L. L. Pearson being first duly Sworn states that he was an undertaker in Louisville Kentucky at the t[illegible] that James Stephens, the husband of Anna Stephens who is now applying for a pension for his services in the Texas revolution of 1832 [illegible] that he this affiant furnished the coffin for said [illegible] Stephens and superintended his burial, that he was buried in Louisville Kentucky in October 1873, according to his best recollection

L. L. Pearson

Subscribed & sworn to before me by L. L. Pearson this 20th day of October AD 1874

N. B. Wilson
Commissioner for Texas in Louisville Kentucky