Col Burleson, afterwards arriving home about the last of December of the same year.

And affiant further states, that his brother George W. Stephenson, now deceased, did with him perform the like service with the same commands, for the same length of time and was likewise honorably discharged after actively participating in the taking of San Antonio.

And affiant further states that he knows of no living member of said John C. Reeds company of Texas Volunteers beside himself —

And affiant further says that after the organization of the government of the Republic of Texas, he and his said brother, sent their discharges to accompany their applications, to Houston then the capital of Texas, for the procurement of bounty lands under the laws of the Republic of Texas; since which time the same have not been seen by affiant, nor his said brother, now deceased; nor have either him or his brother received any portion of the bounty lands to which they are entitled under said laws; and that affiants brother
