while there, and on the retreating said army to the Colorado River, where I was taken sick with fevers, & was unable to do duty as a soldier, and when said army retreated from the Colorado, I started with a furlough to join my Company as soon as able to do duty; & was then taken to the house of Mr Gregg where the Army was then Camped, but being still unfit for duty I went up with many others sick at that place when the Army marched towards Harrisburg, which was about the 10th of March A.D. 1836, I remained sick for several weeks & was not able to join my Company until after the Battle of San Jacinto & the Texan Army was entirely marched northward, & Crockett & joined the Company stationed at Egypt on the Colorado ~~in the~~ about ~~day of~~ the 1st of May A.D. 1836 and continued with said Company & doing duty as a Soldier until my term of service expired and was discharged, and I believe Certain that I was discharged on the Colletto ~~on~~ or about, ~~the~~ the 20th of May A.D. 1836 and which said discharge was filed in the public archives of the State of Texas, to enable me to