The State of Texas } This day personally appeared
County of Atascosa } before me, the undersigned authority, Peter Tomlinson, ~~to me well known, who after being~~ by me duly sworn, says that he knows of his own knowledge that Lewed Taylor, whose residence is at present in Wilson Co. Texas, was a soldier in the years 1835 and 1836, in Capt Colemans Company during the war which separated Texas from Mexico, and that the said Taylor was in the Texas Army until the separation of Texas from Mexico, and that he was wounded by the enemy in the Battle of Salado, and was at that time a member of Capt. Jack Hays Spy Company in the year 1842, and that he believes the said Taylor entitled to pension for services and wounds under the pension act approved Aug. 13 1870
