The State of Texas
Fort Bend County

To the Hon A. Bledsoe
Comptroller.

Your Petitioner applies for a Pension under an "act granting pensions to surviving veterans of the Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico" approved Aug. 13 1870

Personally appeared before the undersigned authority Hiram M. Thompson the above applicant for Pension who after being by me duly sworn on his oath says that he served as a soldier in the Army of Texas from the beginning to the end of the Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico, that he was a soldier at the battle of Velasco in the Company raised at Columbia (now in Brazoria Co.) by Capt Henry Brown & in the Command of Col John Austin in June 1832, that he served at the capture of San Antonio in 1835, in the Company Commanded first by Randal Jones now of Fort Bend Co, & in his absence by "Buck" Travis, in the commands of Edward Burleson & S. F. Austin, that he served during the Campaign of 1836 in the company commanded by Capt Wyley
