To the Controller of the State of Texas
Austin
Texas.

Dear Sir

Excuse me a perfect stranger to you, for annoying you, in a certain matter.

I emigrated to the State of Texas in the Spring of 1831. and F. W. Grasmeyer now living in La Grange is aware of this fact, for he came at the same time with me.

In January 1870. I was in the city of Austin myself, and left the proofs of my identity in the Controllers office. William B. Sewers of Columbus, and William Matthews of Fayette County were my witnesses. Sewers, Matthews, and myself messed and served together in the Army
