The State of Texas, } In County Court, Bexar County,
County of Bexar, } To March Term, A. D. 1877.

The Hon. Thomas A. Dwyer, County Judge:

The applicant, Juana Trebiño Villa Nueva, a resident of said County and State, respectfully represents unto Your Honor that she is the widow of Candelario Villa Nueva, who served in the Army of the Republic of Texas between the commencement of the Revolution at Gonzales in 1835 and the first day of January 1837, under the command of Col. J. N. Seguin in the Company of Manuel Leal; that her said deceased husband, who died in 1865 in this County, never took up arms against this State, and in part proof of his service applicant refers to Bounty Warrant No. 3758 to him. Applicant further declares that her maiden name before her said marriage to her said deceased husband, which marriage took place in this County, on the 11th day of January, 1853, was Juana Trebiño; applicant further states that she has remained, since the death of her said husband, and still is, unmarried; that she is in indigent circumstances and makes this application for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of the Act relating to pensions, approved July 28, 1876; that she hereby revokes and annuls all previous powers of attorney touching pensions, heretofore given by her, and substitutes and appoints James G. Fisk her true and lawful attorney in fact as well as at law, authorizing the said
