and proof of all legal requirements had been complied with, and the case came on to be heard about Terms past the parties for the applicant and for the State having respectively announced themselves ready for trial, and the Court being satisfied that said application sets up and states such facts as are required by an act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, approved July 28th A.D. 1876, to entitle said applicant to a pension, and the facts so stated in said application having been proven by an abundance of proof, therefore I do certify that all the allegations and facts set forth in said application have been proven, and that judgment has been rendered in this Court accordingly against the State of Texas and in favor of the applicant, and that petitioner is now entitled to the pension as provided for in the aforesaid act. Witness my hand at office in the town of Oakville in the aforesaid County and State, on this the 28th day of March A.D. 1877
