OFFICE OF

HOLCOMB & JOHNSTON,

DEALERS IN

General Merchandise

W. F. HOLCOMB,
W. R. JOHNSTON.

Luling, Texas, April 10th 1876

Messrs Cooperwood & Stewart Sirs Your letter was sent to Seguin my post office now is Luling Consequently it was delayed in reaching me I have sent to day all the documents asked for This is the third time I have given power of Attorney to attend to this busin(ess) after I had Given all the proof required of me at the Outset I was then notified by each that I must prove I was in a Battle or Taken prisoner neither of which I could do it seems to me from all the information I have on the subject that it was because I lacked some days of being three Months on the Muster role which was Caused by my being sent home with a Brother Soldier by the name
