his bonds for him. Send the certificate back with this new identity, so that I will not have to get a new one. I have not had time to examine whether or not Mr. Walsh has anything due him in the way of land certificates or not, but will do so and report very soon. Have these papers fixed up as soon as possible and return and oblige your friend

J. L. W[illegible]