Pensioner who appeared by Attorney — and also came the State of Texas by R. R. Booth County Attorney — and both parties announced ready for trial — And the Court after hearing the evidence is of the opinion that said applicant is an indigent person within the meaning of the Statute — and that by reason of his age and bodily infirmities he is unable to earn a living by manual labor — wherefore he is entitled to a Pension under an Act approved July 28th AD 1876 to provide Pensions for the surviving Soldiers of the Texas Revolution — and their surviving widows —

The State of Texas } I — R. R. Faulkner
County of Walker } Clerk of the County Court of Walker County do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct Copy of the Petition Affidavits and the Judgment of Court in the application of Lewis G Weaver for Pension in the County Court of Walker Co Texas

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court this 7th July 1877

R R Faulkner
Clk