Theophilus Wells vs. The State of Texas

This day came on to be heard the application of Theophilus Wells for a Pension from the State of Texas, and the said applicant having appeared by his attorney and the State being represented by her County attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due notice as required by law of said application has been given by the Clerk and the Court having heard the evidence and being satisfied that the application states such facts as are required by law to entitle said applicant to a pension, and was in indigent circumstances on the 1st of January AD 1876, and that the facts so stated are true. It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Clerk of this Court do issue to said applicant Theophilus Wells a certified copy of said application and a certificate of the Court to the back of the same.
