The State of Texas } Before me James Leach
Bell County } Clerk of the District
Court in and for said County personally appeared Henry White a citizen of Bell County who being by me duly sworn, on oath states that he was born at Franklin Williamson County State of Tennessee is seventy two years of age, that he migrated to Texas in the year 1835. That he commanded a company of volunteers and fought a battle with the Indians about the head of Big Creek near Shiloh Hills in the month of February, 1836. That he raised and commanded a company of volunteers in the army of the Texas Republic from about the 21st day of ~~January~~ February 1836 to the first of May 1836 that by a written order from Genl Sam Houston he remained with said company at the Falls of the Brazos to protect the frontier from Indian depredations and guard the San Antonio Road, and that he and said Company of volunteers served continuously at and in the vicinity of said post for the whole of said period, and that he