with the said James J White during the time he was in this affiants Regiment and that he was a good & reliable officer; that he remained in said service from the time he joined affiants Regiment until some time in December 1836, at which time he received an honorable discharge at Camp Johnson on Brazos river; that after his return from Texas he resided in Louisville Kentucky, at which place his widow still resides, and that this affiant has had many conversations with him since his return about said revolutions and incidents that occurred while they were in said service together. Affiant further states that the said James J White died in Louisville Kentucky on the 24th day of September 1871 as he is informed and believes, and that Helen White whose application for pension is hereto attached is the widow of the said James J White, such is his information and belief derived from reliable persons, and such is the general impression and belief in this