Short time after the said John M White was grown he left Giles County for the purpose of going to Mississippi. He returned in 1840 or 1841 & said he had been to Texas & had been in the revolution which resulted the Independence of Texas. Witness Thomas McGee recollects that the said John M White got letters from his father & Gen. Sam Houston, & spoke of the latter, stating as was frequently in the mouth of the said John M White that Texas promised to be a great country, & that the Texans were going to make it so. He stated that the men of Texas were all brave men & that the women of Texas were all virtuous women. He stated that he was with Houston at the battle of San Jacinto & that he was in the battle & was wounded in the leg. He showed the scar of a wound on his leg. He said that he was with Houston in the battle of San Jacinto & was wounded in the leg. He showed the scar of a wound on his leg. He said that he was with Houston in the battle of San Jacinto & was wounded in the leg. He showed the scar of a wound on his leg.