State of Mississippi
Adams County } ss Agnes Wilcox a witness of the credit in every Court of place after being first duly sworn according to law by and before me the undersigned authority upon her sacred oath states and declares that she is now of the age of Sixty Six years and that she is the surviving wife and widow of Charles Wilcox late of said County of Adams and now deceased. - Affiant further states that said Charles Wilcox departed this life intestate on or about the 30th day of June AD 1873 and that said Wilcox when in life or his estate since his death never received any amount whatever in property of any kind from the State of Texas for or as pension due from said State to said Charles Wilcox or as any part thereof Affiant further states that said Charles Wilcox was of the age of about Sixty two years at the time of his sacred death & that he resided for thirty five years prior to his sacred decease in said County of Adams. - Affiant further