her application therefor as such surviving wife and widow

Affiant further states that her said husband was honorably discharged from said service as she has been informed and believes & as will perhaps appear from said Exhibits - Affiant further states that she has counsel the affidavits attached to be made in support of this application & that the persons making the same have no interest whatever directly or indirectly in the claim of said affiant pecuniarily speaking

Affiant further states that she is in need of whatever may be due her under said laws & prays that the same may be allowed her by and through James McCullough her atty of record & agent in said matter and affiant avers that she as such widow has never received any amount whatever from said State as a credit upon said pension