County Court Nov. 9. 1877.

Sarah J. Williams
vs.
State of Texas

Application for Pension
Nov. 19th 1877.

This Cause Coming on to be heard, after hearing the testimony. And the Court being fully satisfied that the Applicant is the Widow of Joshua Williams dec'd. And that he performed the Military Services as She Alleges in her Application. And that She is an indigent Person, And is entitled to the benefits of the law granting Pensions to indigent Veterans, And their Widows of the revolution which Separated Texas from Mexico by reason of the fact, that her late husband Joshua Williams did render the Military Services as set forth in her petition, And that She the said Sarah J. Williams is the Widow of Joshua Williams - That she has never Married since the death of said Joshua Williams

It is therefore Ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that Sarah J. Williams be and She is hereby entitled to a Pension from the State of Texas the Sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars per Annum Commencing the 1st day of July A.D. 1876. And that the Clerk issue to her a Certified Copy of her Application And the Certificate of the Court in Support thereof. And it is adjudged that the Applicant pay all Costs in this behalf expended.