F. M. RAY,

Attorney at Law and Real Estate Agent.

Office, Clinton, Hickman Co., Ky., February 28 - 1876.

Comptroller of
State of [redacted]

Dear Sir.

I write you at the request of F. M. Woodward - an old Soldier of the Texas revolutionary War - [redacted] whose papers are now on file in your office, applying for his pension & bounty bonds under the laws of the State of Texas - you will please write to me on the reception of this and let us know whether any further proof is necessary to secure his pension and bounty bounty bonds - Woodward is poor & feeble - and it is my object if possible to get his bounty & pension without paying a large percent to parties in Austin to draw his money - Please give him any information that may enable him to get it in the shortest & cheapest way for him to do so - He has drawn his land bounty under the first act of the Texas Legislature giving land bounty - so that I presume that
