State of Louisiana Parish of Orleans

City of New Orleans

Be it Known that on this the 15th day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety eighth. Before me a Notary Public, in and and for the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, and State of Louisiana, aforesaid duly commissioned and qualified.

Charles Stringer

Personally came and appeared Sidney S. Callender, of the city of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana; who after being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says, that in the month of October, in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty five, he joined a volunteer company, then being organized in the City of New Orleans, to proceed to Texas, to aid and assist the people thereof in their struggle against Mexican oppression; that he accompanied said company then known as the "Orleans Greys" under the command of Captain Robert C. Morris, to the camping ground of the Texan forces under the command of General Edward Burleson, the said camp being located at a place known then as the "Old Mill" on the San Antonio River, nearly opposite the Alamo;
