City of New Orleans

Be it known that on this the 15th day of November in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three and of the Independence of the United States of America the the ninety eighth.

Before me Charles Stringer a Notary Public in and for the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, and State of Louisiana duly commissioned and qualified.

Personally came and appeared E. F. Stringer of the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana who after being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that in the month of October, in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty five, he joined a volunteer company then being organized in the city of New Orleans, to proceed to Texas to aid and assist the people thereof in their struggle against Mexican oppression; that he accompanied said company then known as the "Orleans Greys" under the command of Captain Robert C. Morris, to the camping ground of the Texan forces under the command of General Edward Burleson, the said camp being located at a place then known as the "Old Mill" on the San Antonio
