Rivas, merely opposite the Alamo, that after the arrival of the "Orleans Greys" at the aforesaid camp, Captain Robert C. Morris was appointed Major of the forces then present, and that William G. Cook, was elected captain of said company of "Orleans Greys" in his stead, that he, the said E. P. Stringer participated in the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico by being present and rendering actual service in the aforesaid company of "Orleans Greys" in the reduction of San Antonio De Bexar on the morning of the 10th of December 1835; and that he was one of the party that took possession of the "Priest's house" fronting the public square in said town of San Antonio where the surrender of the Mexican forces was consummated and that he was honorably discharged by Captain William G. Cook.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 15th Nov. 1873

Lee Stringer
Not Pub

Edward N Stringer Jr

Also personally came and appeared Sidney S. Callender of the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, who after being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says, without reservation, that the E. P. Stringer who made