Matthews of said Certificate is lost or mislaid as therein stated, and that said Matthews and Bryan are both dead, and that said Certificate is justly and legally the property of the Plaintiff Lewis St John, and neither the Administrator or heirs of William Bryan deceased have now or ever had any right title claim or interest in the same. Whereupon it is now adjudged and decreed by the Court that said Certificate of Stock is the property of the Plaintiff Lewis St. John. And it is further ordered and decreed by the Court that the Defendant Philip C Tucker Administrator of said William Bryan deceased, transfer and relinquish by proper instrument in writing, all the right, title, claim and interest of said Estate to said Certificate to the plaintiff Lewis St. John in such manner as to enable the State of Texas to audit and allow the same and issue a certificate therefor in the name of said Lewis St John
