Hon. Secy S. of State Texas

Dear Sir

Not knowing to whom I should communicate as the proper authority I address this letter to you to be handed over by you - if it will not give you too much trouble to the proper person.

There is a man in this City by the name of Adam G. Dorse who has undertaken to procure from the State of Texas a grant of land claimed by the heirs of Henderson.
He was employed by one of the heirs who is an ignorant young girl, and has greatly imposed upon her. He has possession of her papers and refuses to
