Republic of Texas
County of Liberty

Personally came John Coleman Demand who being duly sworn declares that the annexed certificate is just, true and original that he owes this Republic nothing either for his own account or on account of any other person, and that he has neither retained nor hired money begged any arms ammunitions of war nor any other property whatever nor caused it to have been done by any other person.

John C. Demand

Signed and sworn to at the town of Liberty this 26th day of May 1837 before me

Henry W. Stanley
justice of the peace
for the County of Liberty.

TX

TX

A85-2