Orders from the Commanding General, all of the officers present gave him certificates for the sums respectively which he presented at the Auditors Office for settlement on or about the 12th inst. which certificates are supposed to be correct or reasonable in his (the auditors or comptrollers Office) that the Government is justly indebted to him for the amount mentioned, with the exception of forty four dollars which he received for public property sold at Columbia by order of Gen Rusk, that he is not further indebted to Government. he also acknowledges to have received an order on the Treasury for three hundred and eighty two dollars & seventy two cents in full.

C. M. Dexter

Columbia Oct 24 1836