I certify that Henry Dibble volunteered his services in the company of Militia drafted at Matagorda on the 23d. of February 1836 pursuant to an ordinance of the Provisional Government, which company was under the command of Lieut. McNair, and I bear Mr Dibble record, that during the period of said company's separate organization, viz., twenty three days, he truly, promptly, and faithfully discharged all the duties required of a good and true soldier in the cause of Texas

Velasco. May 24th 1836

Henry Field ex-orderly Sergeant.

I certify that Henry Dibble was a member of the volunteer ammunition guard, detached from Victoria to Demit, under my command on the 15th March 1836, and, till the 15th. of April, when the company was dis[illegible], that he performed his duties most promptly and faithfully.

Allen Larrison Capt.
by Henry Field a member of the guard and the authorized agent of Capt. Larrison.

Velasco May 24th. 1836

(TX)