plainant having received his full quota of Land according to his enlistment - having received full pay for all the actual services rendered by him - From his having been transferred by voluntary consent from the Army to the Navy and received additional compensation by being promoted - From the Fact that the Secretary had a right to remove & did actually remove him - That he has no Equitable demand against this Government and therefore feels compelled to vote for the rejection of this account.