your indebtedness to me is as follows:

On your last visit to Austin. Money worth 3 for 1		$200.00
Money rec'd on me soon after. Gayley & R	3 for 1	150.00
Amt paid costs adm'r W J Mitchell est.	" "	30.00
" " " " S. Moore's "	" "	30.00
" " " " R Slatter's "	" "	30.00
		$440.00

Leaving a balance of $880. at present prices

Leaving you (98) which is the amount now pretty due on a settlement without including any compensation for my services with the details above mentioned, or any allowance of the 3 months R.R. which is charged to me by Congressmen, and without interest. Being thus indebted to me I thought I might safely draw for $[illegible] and rely upon its being paid, or at least upon an acknowledgment that it was due to me if unable to pay it, as you allege that it is as the only reason in your letter to me of 22d ultimo. So soon as I received the Payment of the draft came to [illegible] I told me that you had not indulged [illegible] to think that I had drawn [illegible] authority which displeased me no little [illegible] that I had thus dice[illegible] I am [illegible] with a wife and [illegible] Ralph [illegible] some I am [illegible] the land [illegible] to be located and [illegible] not get [illegible] and even if the [illegible] had been for land [illegible] and no money wi[illegible] to buy it [illegible] purchase so that [illegible] will do you [illegible] of us any good. [illegible] is boarding at the Lighthorse, doing nothing [illegible] says you treat him badly and says the [illegible] thing of me behind my back. He looks [illegible] usual except in [illegible] dress which is of an old [illegible] fashioned. [illegible] rows about Nothing [illegible] this the attitude of the people [illegible] Harris [illegible] Van Brunt [illegible] they never [illegible]