The Affidavit of Jacob Graff of the City of Cincinnati Made before the Court of Common Pleas, at Cincinnati Hamilton County Ohio.

This Affiant States, that at the time of the transaction between Col John A. Tibbatts and the State of Texas ~~in~~ furnishing Clothing for the Army of Texas, I was agent for Col. Tibbatts and attended particularly to the business of the Newport Manufacturing Company, in selling Jeans - The Jeans Manufactured at that time sold at from 75 cts to $1.00 per yard. And upon an examination of the books for the years 1836 & 7 Jeans ~~Sold~~ of the same quality as that Sold to the State of Texas, were Sold to Cincinnati Merchants at 87½ cents per yard, being the same price Sold to the State of Texas - That the charge, for Making & Cutting the Clothing, is the same as charged in the bills of those employed for that purpose, with probably a small per cent added for the trouble of attending to the business and for advancing funds for that purpose - The transaction was just such an one as would have been made with a Merchant of Cincinnati of the best standing
