Improvements, Crops, Stock &c, that the Amounts as Claimed in the foregoing Account, he knows is greatly below the Value of said Articles. And that he knows that the said Hardy was compelled to abandon his home, leaving all on the approach of the Mexican Army and that said property was wholly destroyed and wasted during the Revolution of the year 1836. And that owing to the dangerous situation of the frontier, it was impossible for the said Hardy to remove his property to a place of safety.

Sworn to & subscribed before me this 5th August AD 1851.

Fernando de Leon

J. Mills Ingram
Notary Public

Carlos Cesso, being duly sworn deposeth that he was well acquainted with the said William Hardy and family at their residence on the Navidad River and upon his examination of the foregoing Account, from his personal knowledge of the improvements, stock crops &c he concedes that the sums as therein charged, is greatly below what the same was worth at that time, that the improvements was fully worth $1800 Eighteen hundred Dollars, and that he was on the farm frequently and knew