The State of Texas }
County of San Patricio }

This day personally appeared before me John Archer Chief Justice of the County aforesaid Ann Carroll well known to me who being duly sworn says that she was well acquainted with James Heffernan that in the year 1836 he owned in the County San Patricio a house & improvements that he had some household & kitchen furniture that he owned at that time twelve cows & calves — cows & calves were then worth fifteen dollars per cow & calf — he had one horse that I know to belong to defendant — he was a man in good circumstances.
