An Estimate of property Destroyed and lost in consequence of the revolution of Texas, in the years 1835, 36, 37 &c by James Heffernan of San Patricio, who with his wife and all his family (with the exception of one daughter who is lately reported to be living in Laredo) were killed on the Atransoso in the year 1836.

His house on the Atransoso plundered and totally destroyed, his cattle, Horses, Farming utensils, Corn Crop &c &c entirely destroyed. Also his house and the fencing of his lot in the Village of San Patricio, an entire loss

For the daughter of James Heffernan reported to be residing in Laredo, as above stated, is not living. I know of no other heirs to his Estate but Mary Riggs, Margaret Handy, Olivia, John and James Heffernan his Nephews.

To the above estimate I have not been an eye witness, but from the information I then and since received, I do swear that I believe said estimate is every word true
