Richmond July 24/58

To the Hon. E. W. Clark

Dr Sir

Upon my arrival in this place to see Mr Kendall who is my agents to act for me in order to recover my just rights, I found Mr. E. H. Kendall had gone to Austin and I was very anxious to meet him there and took stage for that purpose but met him on his way coming back now to give you a history of myself I came to this country as Volunteer in 1836 in Col. Harrison Regiment Ky Volunteers Capt. Price Commanding Company in which I served six months it being our term of service I then reenlisted for during the war under Col Juan Seguins Spy Company in which I served and was honorably discharged

I had forgot to say I recd my discharge for my six months services from Cullett Burnett
