know he has been badly treated and greatly misrepented by those who were interested to get him out of the way in order to get his property. I consider him as much entitled to compensation for his losses as any other man in Texas. I make this statement, as under oath, and wish it to be so understood, as there is no officer at hand, to administer an oath.

Nov. 4th 1849

Arthur Burns