to receive said amounts due them & all costs attending the collection of the same. Witness my hand & seal this 2d day of June 1856—

Witness Geo. H. Wells James Love

There is a judgement against me in the U. S. District Court at Galveston in favor of Mr. Everett, growing out of the transaction for which the above writing has been executed by me. If the stock is received by virtue of this writing then the judgement is satisfied, but the costs. It is also understood that Mr. Haynie who is investigating my accounts at Austin, is first entitled to his commissions, on all the stock found to be due me. June 2 1856
