The State of Texas }
County of Travis } Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority Dugald McLean, made known to me by the affidavits of and who being duly sworn states on oath, that he came to Texas in the month of December A.D. 1835 as 1st Lieutenant of Capt Wardsworth Company from the State of Georgia, that upon the reorganization of said Company he was appointed Assistant Commissary by Col Fannin some time between the 1st and 10th day of January A.D. 1836 that he served in that capacity until the Command of Fannin was ordered to Copano, when he resigned said office and attached himself to the Company of Capt Jesse Billingsley under the immediate Command of Genl Sam. Houston some time about the last of February of said year. That he served as a private soldier in said Company during the Campaign of the Spring of 1836 and was honorably discharged on or about the 17th day of May A.D. 1836. that he surrendered his Discharge for the purpose of obtaining his Bounty and Donation lands, which he has received from the Government of Texas, and he supposes that said Discharge was destroyed in the burning of the Archives in the Adjutant General's Department; That he never sold or alienated his said Discharge that the same cannot now be produced.

Affiant further states that he has never received any pay for his said Services from the Republic or State of Texas

T. McLean

Signed & Sworn to before me this 4th May 1857.

James C. Wilson