which fact a large portion of said Battalion, together with the said Edward H. Stanley were present, and participants in Battle of San Jacinto. The above is a part and parcel of the history of our Revolution, and needs no confirmation by the hands of your Petitioner; But your Petitioner, would at the same time respectfully represent, that she contributed in money and supplies towards fitting out said expedition, the sum of fifteen Hundred dollars, which was placed in the hands of said William H. Stanley for the use and benefit of said company of Volunteers under his command as aforesaid. And your petitioner would here remark, that she was impelled thereto by the deep sympathy which she felt for the struggling and oppressed People of Texas, and directly against the counsel and advice of her Father and other friends, but it was a contribution made out of her then abundance, with the ardent hope that it might aid in repelling the expected invasion, and assist in establishing order, civilization and Liberty. Your Petitioner could not consistently with her feelings have done less, and would freely have done more, had it been needed; never stopping to
